Port fees - Anchorages:

Port fees and anchorages are to be paid on spot in each port/anchor (in cash), according to actual costs in ports/anchors.

The total cost per week depends on the selected itinerary/ports of call.

It is not obligatory for the yacht to be in the port each night, it can also be anchored, which lowers the mooring fees (approximate cost is between 800 - 2000 Euros per week).

The yacht price does not include:

- Food and beverages
- Port fees, anchorages and tourist taxes: paid on spot in cash according to actual costs; approximately EUR 1,500 - 2,000 per week depending on itinerary
- Private marinas: approximately EUR 500 - 900 per night if requested
- Tips: voluntary, usually 10% - 15% of the charter price
- Delivery/Re-delivery fee: Dubrovnik EUR 1,200 fixed if an empty leg is caused by embarkation or disembarkation outside the home port
- Additional cruising: EUR 70/hour if cruising more than 28 hours per week
- Fuel for motorized water sports: charged according to usage
- Other options on request: land transfers, fishing licenses, guided tours, excursions, restaurants, bike rentals and car rentals

About M/Y Andjeo

The name says it all — Andjeo, meaning "Angel," truly lives up to its reputation as one of the most elegant and eye-catching gulets cruising the Croatian coast. Impeccably maintained by its owners, this gulet turns heads in every harbour with its high-gloss exterior finish that sparkles in the sun. When anchored in a quiet bay, you can even see your reflection in the polished hull as you swim in the crystal-clear Adriatic. Andjeo blends the authenticity of a classic sailing yacht with a refined modern interior, offering comfort, practicality, and a luxurious atmosphere for an unforgettable Croatian cruise.

Andjeo features five double cabins with comfortable French beds, each more inviting than the last. The cabins are bright, modern, and designed with exceptional attention to detail. Every cabin includes air conditioning, a wardrobe, bathroom and beach towels, 24 V/220V electricity, and a private en-suite bathroom. The bathrooms are elegant and fully equipped, featuring wall-mounted showers, hair dryers, shampoo, and soap. The warm wooden textures paired with soft lighting make the cabins feel like a boutique hotel at sea.
